

New York City's Hottest New Restaurants

FROM PEKING DUCK IN MIDTOWN TO PASTA IN PROSPECT HEIGHTS

January 16, 2018 · by Zagat Staff

Don't know where to eat tonight? Here's a place to start: our monthly hottest restaurants update. Check out some of the most important restaurants in NYC right now, from a Brooklyn trattoria to a Midtown Peking duck specialist.

DADONG NEW YORK

Chinese · West 40s · $$$

 ZAGAT RATED

The first U.S. outpost of the Chinese chain by chef Dong Zhenxiang, this spacious Bryant Park locale focuses on roast Peking duck that's carved tableside, along with a vast array of hot and cold dishes.

Must-order: Roast duck, steamed king crab

Insider tip: Opt for the tasting menu for a more luxurious experience.